AMENDED ETHICS COMPLAINT AGAINST REPRESENTATIVE BETO O'ROURKE

Due to several significant conflicts of interest—including two that have just recently been uncovered—Representative Beto O'Rourke ("O'Rourke") has violated his fiduciary duty to the citizens of El Paso. El Paso Municipal Code §2.92.010 ("all city officers and employees have a fiduciary duty to the citizens of the city to be ethical in fulfilling the responsibilities of their positions"). One of the duties of City officials is to avoid actual and apparent conflicts between their personal interests and public responsibilities. El Paso Municipal Code §2.92.020(5). Yet O'Rourke is impermissibly entangled in Paso del Norte Group's ("PDNG") El Paso Downtown Revitalization Plan ("Revitalization Plan") to the detriment of the citizens of El Paso.

1. O'Rourke's financial interests are in direct conflict with his fiduciary duties to the citizens of El Paso.

O'Rourke is the founder and owner of Stanton Street Technology Group ("SSTG"), a company that has been surreptitiously providing Internet and Information Technology-based services to the PDNG. SSTG registered the domain names www.pdng.org and www.pasodelnortegroup.org on May 7, 2004, and the URL, www.pdng.org, displays the Stanton Street Technology Group logo along with this statement:

You have navigated to a page that is currently unavailable. If you have any concerns please write us at: hostmaster@stantonstreetgroup.com.

See Exhibit A, Network Solutions Registration Information. The email address for the registrant of the two websites is hostmaster@stantonstreetgroup.com, and SSTG's street address and phone numbers are provided as the contact information for the websites' administrator. Id. Also, emails broadcasted by the PDNG to its general membership contain the phrase "Powered by Stanton Street Technology Group," an indication that the website is written, maintained and/or hosted by SSTG. See Exhibit B printout of May 19, 2006 email.

As a shareholder, director and vice president of SSTG, O'Rourke has an obvious direct financial interest in the company. See Exhibit C, O'Rourke Financial Disclosures. SSTG's provision of services to PDNG means that O'Rourke has an indirect financial interest in business SSTG transacts with PDNG.

O'Rourke has repeatedly ignored this conflict of interest. For example, on September 13, 2005, O'Rourke voted to extend PDNG's $250,000 contract with the City to develop the Revitalization Plan. On March 31, 2006, O'Rourke again ignored this conflict when he voted to accept the PDNG's Revitalization Plan, which initiated the process of amending the City's Comprehensive Master Plan in order to adopt the PDNG Revitalization Plan. O'Rourke continues to ignore the conflict of interest by actively collaborating with the PDNG in promoting the Plan to the City Council and general public. O'Rourke's conduct is in direct violation of El Paso Municipal Code Section 2.92.050(A), (C), (I), and (K):

Officers or employees:

A. Shall not accept or solicit for personal financial gain, any benefit that might reasonably tend to influence them to act improperly in the discharge of official duties;

C. Shall not participate in making or influencing any city governmental decision or action in which they know that they have any financial interest distinguishable from that of the public generally or from that of other city officers or employees generally;

I. Shall not transact any business (other than ministerial acts) on behalf of the city with any business entity of which they are officers, agents or members, or in which they have a financial interest. In the event such a circumstance arises, then they shall make known their interest, and:

1. In the case of an officer, abstain from voting on the matter and refrain from discussion of the matter at any time with the other members of the body of which he or she is a member and with any other person or body in city government which may consider the matter . . .;

K. Shall not accept other employment or engage in outside activities incompatible with the full and proper discharge of their duties and responsibilities with the city, or which might impair their independent judgment in the performance of their public duty.

The City's contract with PDNG to develop the Revitalization Plan had a reasonable possibility of conferring financial benefit to O'Rourke personally. Yet not only did O'Rourke vote to extend PDNG's contract and to accept the Plan itself, but he continues to promote the Revitalization Plan in spite of his actual and apparent conflict of interest. This clearly constitutes a breach of O'Rourke's fiduciary duty to the citizens of El Paso.

Although a limited amount of information relating to the level of O'Rourke's personal involvement in SSTG's provision of services to PDNG has been revealed in the press since this complaint was originally filed, publicly available information at www.networksolutions.com reveals that SSTG began providing services to PDNG as early as 2004, and an e-mail transmitted by the PDNG to its members on May 19, 2006 shows that SSTG continues to provide services to PDNG. See Exhibits A and B.

Since the filing of this complaint, O'Rourke has given contradictory information to the media relating to the extent of SSTG's relationship with PDNG. For example, in a September 6, 2006 article in the El Paso Times, O'Rourke claimed that SSTG's receipts from PDNG totaled only about $1,200. See Exhibit D. However, a subsequent Border Observer article reveals that O'Rourke's company received more than $2,400 from the group while contributing $2,700 for what appears to be PDNG membership dues. See Exhibit E. Assuming SSTG is not O'Rourke's primary source of income, he has also violated Section 2.92.050(J) of the Municipal Code:

Officers or employees:

J. Shall not personally provide services for compensation, directly or indirectly, to a person or organization who is requesting an approval, investigation, or determination from the body or department of which the officer or employee is a member. This restriction does not apply to outside employment of an officer if the employment is the officer's primary source of income.

In transacting business with SSTG for IT-related services, it appears the PDNG may be indirectly compensating O'Rourke for the purpose of influencing his decisions on the City Council. This type of arrangement constitutes a severe ethics violation and a breach of O'Rourke's duties to the citizens of El Paso:

Officers or employees:

M. Shall not receive any fee or compensation for their services as officers or employees of the city from any source other than the city, except as may be otherwise provided by law. This shall not prohibit their performing the same or other services for a public or private organization that they perform for the city if there is no conflict with their city duties and responsibilities.

§2.92.050(M).

The PDNG refuses to disclose its financial records relating to its payments to SSTG in response to a request pursuant to the Texas Public Information Act. See Exhibits F and G, Open Records Request & PDNG's Response. However, regardless of what PDNG's records may expose, O'Rourke has repeatedly committed an ethics violation by either having an impermissible financial interest or at least giving the reasonable appearance of impropriety, which is also prohibited by the City's Municipal Code:

Officers or employees:

D. Shall not give reasonable basis by their conduct for the impression that any person can improperly influence, or unduly enjoy their favor in, the performance of their official duties, or that they are unduly affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any person.

§2.92.050(D).

2. O'Rourke's personal interests are directly in conflict with his fiduciary duties to the citizens of El Paso.

O'Rourke's wife and mother are members of PDNG, and O'Rourke himself was, on information and belief, a member of the PDNG until the Fall of 2005 (he may have been a PDNG member when he voted to extend the City's contract with the PDNG on September 13, 2005).

It is well known that O'Rourke's father-in-law, Bill Sanders ("Sanders"), is a highly influential member of the PDNG—and the leader of the PDNG's Revitalization Plan. Just last week, Sanders publicly revealed that he will be an investor in the proposed Revitalization Plan in addition to serving as the promoter for the real estate investment trust ("REIT") that will provide the capital for project. See Exhibit H. Even though Sanders has stated that he will donate the dividends from his investment in the REIT to a non-profit organization, his financial involvement only crystallizes the conflict of interest for Representative O'Rourke. Even if he donates his dividends and receives a substantial tax deduction in return, Sanders will have still have a substantial financial interest in the project and O'Rourke will be motivated to support the Plan so his father-in-law will not lose his investment. O'Rourke has a clear interest in promoting PDNG's Revitalization Plan for the benefit of his father-in-law.

Calendar records produced pursuant to an open records request reveal that O'Rourke receives favors from Sanders' real estate development company, Verde Group, LLC ("Verde"), not typically associated with normal familial benefits. For example, O'Rourke's appointment schedule for March 28, 2006 reveals that only three days before the public unveiling of the PDNG's Revitalization Plan, O'Rourke took his income tax records to a meeting with Barry Kobren, Verde's Chief Financial Officer and a Certified Public Accountant. O'Rourke apparently met with Kobren in Verde's offices to discuss his income taxes. See Exhibit I. Even if O'Rourke paid for Kobren's professional accounting services—which is doubtful considering that Kobren works for Verde—this evidence raises serious concerns that Sanders is attempting to improperly influence O'Rourke's official decisions. O'Rourke failed to report the value of Kobren's professional services in the financial disclosure statement he filed with the City on May 1, 2006. See Exhibit C. By his conduct, O'Rourke gives the troubling impression that Sanders unduly enjoys his favor in the performance of his official duties.

There is no question that these relationships are in direct conflict with O'Rourke's fiduciary obligations to the citizens of El Paso. O'Rourke's personal interests are entangled with PDNG, yet he has continues to heavily promote and vote in favor of PDNG's Plan. O'Rourke's conduct clearly violates Section 2.92.050(B) and (H) of the Municipal Code:

Officers or employees:

B. Shall not use their official positions improperly to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for themselves, relatives, or others;

H. Shall not utilize city resources for personal benefit or the personal benefit of a relatives, friend or business associate, except to the extent that the benefit received is strictly incidental to the performance of official duties, or to the extent that the person is entitled by law to obtain public services from the city.

O'Rourke cannot realistically separate his personal interests from his duties to the citizens of El Paso because they are inextricably intertwined. At the very minimum, there is a perception that O'Rourke is using his position on the City Council to garner the City's approval of the PDNG's Revitalization Plan—all for the benefit of PDNG, his family, and his wife's family. This is in direct contradiction to O'Rourke's duties to the citizens of El Paso.

3. Given O'Rourke's financial and personal interests, his promotion of the Revitalization Plan to the City Council is in direct conflict with his fiduciary duties to the citizens of El Paso.

O'Rourke's duties to the citizens of El Paso include representing their best interests before the City Council. But O'Rourke's clear financial and personal interests in PDNG run contrary to that duty. By consistently promoting and voting in favor of the Revitalization Plan O'Rourke is actually representing the interests of PDNG and his relatives while sitting on the City Council, instead of his constituency. This constitutes an ethical violation under Section 2.92.050(N):

Officers or employees:

N. Shall not, in the case of a member of the city council or an employee, personally represent or appear in behalf of the private interest of another before the city council, or any city board or department . . .

O'Rourke's vast interests in PDNG lead to the rational conclusion that he has in fact been representing the private interests of PDNG before the City Council.

4. Conclusion.

The City "strongly encourages all of its officers and employees to maintain the highest personal values and standards." El Paso Municipal Code §2.92.020(A). O'Rourke has clearly failed to do so—he has violated no less than ten (10) standards of conduct for City Council Members.

The El Paso Downtown Plan

Let's set the record straight:

The El Paso Times article, "Mayor to Start Over On Downtown Plan" was misleading. The fact is that The Paso del Norte Group will take on a formal advocacy role and continue to manage the Task Forces. There are other changes that you can read about in the actual press releases that you can link to here. We are taking immediate steps to correct the record with the El Paso Times.

Just The Facts
Statement From Paso Del Norte
Press Conference

The above links also contain a letter outlining responsibilities that we have agreed to with the City regarding the Plan. The other two are the press releases that were given to the press at the Press Conference called by the Mayor on Wednesday.

Downtown Plan Community Meetings

Below is a list of upcoming Community Meetings which will be conducted by the Planners from SMWM. You are encouraged to attend at least one of these sessions.

All of the meetings will be held at the Judson F. Williams Convention Center in the El Paso Room. There will be free parking for all attendees

May 23, 2006, 6:00pm

The next meetings will be structured as workshops for community members to provide input, ideas, and recommendations:

May 24, 2006, 1:00 pm to 3:30 pm

Group seeks to block votes by O'Rourke on land plan

By David Crowder / El Paso Times
El Paso Times

Article Launched:09/06/2006 12:00:00 AM MDT

El Paso city Rep. Beto O'Rourke's family and business ties to the Paso Del Norte Group, which is behind a controversial Downtown redevelopment plan, constitute a conflict of interest that should keep him from voting on the plan and out of the public debate, an ethics complaint filed against him Tuesday charges.

O'Rourke, a first-term representative who in July was the target of an unsuccessful petition drive to force a recall election, expressed surprise and dismay on hearing of the complaint.

He said the business ties to Paso Del Norte are insubstantial and denied his strong support for the plan has been influenced because his father-in-law, Bill Sanders, heads the business group, and his mother and wife are members.

The five-page complaint, backed up by 50 pages of documents, is the first complaint lodged with the ethics commission this year and the only one filed against a council member since 2004.

Signed by Stuart Blaugrund, the Dallas lawyer for Land Grab Opponents of El Paso, the complaint notes that the city's Ethics Review Commission has the power to reprimand or to remove a city official from office.

But organization President Jerry Rosenbaum said they don't want to oust O'Rourke. They just want him to quit voting on and advocating for the Downtown plan that the Paso Del Norte Group unveiled in March.

"We're asking him to recuse himself," Rosenbaum said. "That's what we have been asking for all along. He said he does not believe he has a conflict of interest. It's nice that he believes that, but I'm not sure he should be judging himself."

Largely composed of Downtown business owners, Land Grab Opponents is one of several groups that have formed to oppose the redevelopment plan because it calls for the acquisition and demolition of dozens of South El Paso businesses, using the city's power of eminent domain when necessary.

David Palmer, a longtime member and former chairman of the ethics commission, said the city attorney's office must first determine whether the complaint may be heard by the commission.

Then, he said, the issue could be taken up at the commission's meeting later this month or on an emergency basis, if necessary.

"We would hear both sides of the argument, look at the evidence and make a decision," he said.

The new commission chairman is Westsider Gerry Mangrum, and it could be up to him whether to expedite a hearing or hearings, Palmer said.

The latest draft of the redevelopment plan by a San Francisco consulting firm, SMWM, is expected to be delivered to the city Friday, and a series of meetings involving City Council, the City Plan Commission and the Paso Del Norte Group are to follow.

The ethics complaint points to evidence of a business relationship between Paso Del Norte and the Internet-oriented company O'Rourke started, Stanton Street Technology Group.

O'Rourke said Stanton Street is the Internet provider for Paso Del Norte's Web site and e-mail system at a cost of about $1,200 for a company doing about $1 million in business a year.

"We have 200 to 300 clients, mostly in El Paso, and I don't see the conflict," O'Rourke said, adding that the city attorney's office advised him he can vote on matters involving business clients as long as they do not account for more than 5 percent of his company's income.

Alleging the appearance of impropriety, the complaint also cites an Ethics Code provision that states city officials "shall not give reasonable basis by their conduct for the impression that any person can improperly influence or unduly enjoy their favor in the performance of their official duties, or that they are unduly affected by kinship, rank, position or influence of any person."

To that, O'Rourke replied, "I just say that I take this job very seriously. I am not and never will be influenced by anything other than what is best for El Paso. If that means we implement 100 percent of PDNG's plan or choose an alternate plan altogether, that's what I'm going to do."

Up on Downtown - An Update

Ethics Complaint Filed O'Rourke Defiant

THE READER GENERATOR

The on-going battle over the Downtown and its future continued with the filing of an ethics complaint filed against city Rep. Robert "Beto" O'Rourke. The complaint alleges O'Rourke has conflicts of interest that are "materially intertwined" with the Paso Del Norte Group (PDNG). The complaint states that O'Rourke's financial, personal interests and his promotion of the Revitalization Plan are in direct conflict with his fiduciary duties to the citizens of El Paso.

The complaint also includes a letter from PDNG asserting Paso Del Norte Group records are not subject to disclosure under the Texas Government Code.

The complaint has been forwarded to the City Ethics Commission. Published reports indicate city attorney Charles McNabb must accept the complaint before the Commission can hear it.

Local O'Rourke Opponents of El Paso President Jerry Rosenbaum, a leading critic of O'Rourke's involvement in City Council votes regarding the PDNG, said O'Rourke was biased in favor of the plan, and was motivated by "outside interests."

When asked if he was accusing O'Rourke of being motivated by the hope of reaping a financial benefit from the Downtown Plan, Rosenbaum said: "That is for every one step to decide. He said, 'Whatever the motivation factors are, I can't see. But there are other factors involved, relationships, organization he belongs to, financial interest to Stanton Street Technology group - it's a complicated issue.'"

When asked about what his opponent would be to people accusing him of self-interested motivations, his tone became sarcastic and asked why he would be accused of being "disingenuous."

"People have been saying a lot of things, but the motivation in saying something about me is to try and ruin my reputation for the purpose of defending their invalid argument. Let them do it the same way, do it in writing," he said. "If they can do that without being sued for libel, then we're talking about something."

But let them have the same guts that we have to go forward. I do not have a secret motivation. You know my stance on abuse of eminent domain, all the city has to do is eliminate their threat of eminent domain, and then we'll talk about the plan. Rosenbaum is saying that we have some type of secret plan, that is not our plan. We have been very clear, stop the use of eminent domain, nothing beyond that," Rosenbaum said.

But let me not get out. I'm not motivated by anything except what is best for El Paso.

The complaint includes communication to the Paso Del Norte Group which states that the PDNG is a "governmental body" and such is subject to the provisions of the Public Information Act.

A request is made for disclosure of significant number of communications from members of the PDNG and various individuals including some members of the El Paso banking community and large land developers such as Woody Hunt among many, many others.

In addition, a request is made to identify the membership of Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone Residential & Commercial Task Force & Historic Initiative District Task Force, Artisan District, and Hotel & El-National Arts Walk Legal & Communications Task Force.

The complaint includes a letter from PDNG asserting Paso Del Norte Group records are not subject to disclosure under the Texas Government Code.

The complaint has been forwarded to the City Ethics Commission. Published reports indicate city attorney Charles McNabb must accept the complaint before the Commission can hear it.

Local O'Rourke Opponents of El Paso President Jerry Rosenbaum, a leading critic of O'Rourke's involvement in City Council votes regarding the PDNG, said O'Rourke was biased in favor of the plan, and was motivated by "outside interests."

When asked if he was accusing O'Rourke of being motivated by the hope of reaping a financial benefit from the Downtown Plan, Rosenbaum said: "That is for every one step to decide. He said, 'Whatever the motivation factors are, I can't see. But there are other factors involved, relationships, organization he belongs to, financial interest to Stanton Street Technology group - it's a complicated issue.'"

When asked about what his opponent would be to people accusing him of self-interested motivations, his tone became sarcastic and asked why he would be accused of being "disingenuous."

But let them have the same guts that we have to go forward. I do not have a secret motivation. You know my stance on abuse of eminent domain, all the city has to do is eliminate their threat of eminent domain, and then we'll talk about the plan. Rosenbaum is saying that we have some type of secret plan, that is not our plan. We have been very clear, stop the use of eminent domain, nothing beyond that," Rosenbaum said.

ETHICS COMPLAINT AGAINST REPRESENTATIVE BETO O'ROURKE

Due to several significant conflicts of interest, Representative Beto O'Rourke ("O'Rourke") has violated his fiduciary duty to the citizens of El Paso. El Paso Municipal Code §2.92.010 ("all city officers and employees have a fiduciary duty to the citizens of the city to be ethical in fulfilling the responsibilities of their positions"). One of the duties of City officials is to avoid actual and apparent conflicts between their personal interests and public responsibilities. El Paso Municipal Code §2.92.020(5). Yet O'Rourke is impermissibly entangled in Paso del Norte Group's (PDNG) El Paso Downtown Revitalization Plan ("Revitalization Plan") to the detriment of the citizens of El Paso.

1. O'Rourke's financial interests are in direct conflict with his fiduciary duties to the citizens of El Paso.

O'Rourke is the founder and owner of Stanton Street Technology Group ("SSTG"), a company that has been surreptitiously providing Internet and Information Technology-based services to the PDNG. SSTG registered the domain name www.sstg.com and www.stantonstreet.com on May 7, 2004, and the URL www.sstg.com displays the Stanton Street Technology Group logo along with this statement:

You have navigated to a page that is currently unavailable. If you have any concerns please write us at business@stantonstreet.com.

See Exhibit A, Network Solutions Registration Information. The email address for the registrar of the two websites is business@stantonstreet.com, and SSTG's street address and phone numbers are provided as the contact information for the website's administrator. Also, emails forwarded by the PDNG to its general membership contain the phrase "powered by Stanton Street Technology Group," an indication that the website is written, maintained and/or hosted by SSTG. See Exhibit B printed on May 19, 2006 email.

As a shareholder, director and vice president of SSTG, O'Rourke has an obvious direct financial interest in the company. See Exhibit C, O'Rourke Financial Disclosure. SSTG's provision of services to PDNG means that O'Rourke has an indirect financial interest in business SSTG transacts with PDNG.

O'Rourke has repeatedly ignored this conflict of interest. For example, on September 11, 2005, O'Rourke voted in favor of PDNG's $150,000 contract with the City to develop the Revitalization Plan. On March 31, 2006, O'Rourke again ignored this conflict when he voted to accept the PDNG's Revitalization Plan, which initiated the process of amending the City's Comprehensive Master Plan in order to adopt the PDNG's Revitalization Plan. O'Rourke has failed to ignore the conflict of interest by actively collaborating with the PDNG in promoting the Plan to the City Council and general public. O'Rourke's conduct is in direct violation of El Paso Municipal Code Section 2.92.050(A), (C), (D), and (E).

O'Rourke's in-law to invest in plan

By David Crowder / El Paso Times
El Paso Times

Article Launched:10/06/2006 12:00:00 AM MDT

William Sanders, who heads the Paso del Norte Group and is the father-in-law of South-West city Rep. Beto O'Rourke, now intends to invest in the Downtown redevelopment effort after all.

In April, Sanders told the El Paso Times he had decided not to put his own money into the investment trust that is to provide essential private capital for Downtown redevelopment so that O'Rourke could avoid a conflict-of-interest problem that might force him out of the debate.

But, apparently at the request of Mayor John Cook, Sanders has agreed to lead other investors into a real estate investment trust with his money, but not to take any profits.

Sanders said Thursday that he would donate any dividends to a Downtown nonprofit.

"Mayor Cook made a very constructive suggestion that would allow me to participate in the Downtown (investment trust) currently in the formation while eliminating any perceived conflict of interest," Sanders said in a written response to questions from the Times. "A number of El Paso citizens said that they would commit money to the Downtown (investment trust) only if I were alongside them as an investor."

Because of Sanders' involvement, O'Rourke has been dogged by the conflict-of-interest issue since the beginning of the Downtown redevelopment debate in March.

It went beyond talk four weeks ago when Stuart Blaugrund, the lawyer for Land Grab Opponents of El Paso, filed a city ethics complaint against O'Rourke, contending that he should recuse himself from the debate and voting on the Downtown plan advanced by the nonprofit Paso del Norte Group.

The El Paso Ethics Review Commission will take up the complaint next Thursday.

While the complaint cites several angles of potential financial conflicts that O'Rourke contends are probably too insignificant to keep him from voting, it also raises a troublesome "appearance of impropriety" question stemming from kinship alone.

The city Ethics Code contains a provision that states city officials "shall not give reasonable basis by their conduct for the impression that any person can improperly influence or unduly enjoy their favor in the performance of their official duties, or that they are unduly affected by kinship, rank, position or influence of any person."

Cook said he suggested that O'Rourke sit out the Downtown debate because without him there is still a four-vote majority on council for the plan that regularly votes down the three opponents. And, Cook said, that does not include the vote he can cast to break ties.

"I want to make it clear that I'm not voting because anyone wants me to. Some have said, 'Don't vote,' " O'Rourke said. "My obligation is to the people of my district, and if I'm not at the table to represent their interests, then I don't think they have a seat at the table."
